Freedom are looking for some amazing art to feature on a range of new merchandise and resources. If you think your art would look great on a shirt, tote bag, water bottle, frisbee, post cards and more, then this is the competition for you! Get your art out there while increasing LGBTIQ+ representation and visibility across the state.

Details

Who:

LGBTIQ+ identifying and aged 12-25 years old.

What:

Create a piece of art representing 'A queer future is bright'. You may use any medium and size of the piece, however the designs when placed on merchandise will vary in size from 7 x 7 cm to 20cm x 20 cm. We can change the art size to fit it to size, so beware of having too much detail as it may be lost in printing or resizing.

How:

Once completed, you can enter in multiple ways:

In Person: Bring your artwork and application form to Freedom Centre in Leederville, headspace Bunbury, headspace Kalgoorlie headspace Geraldton.

Electronically: Take a clear photo or scan artwork and email a copy to freedom@waac.com.au. Please note, we may need you to send in the original artwork if you're selected as a winner, however, it will be returned to you.

When:

Competition closes on 31/03/2023.

Judging:

Artwork will be judged based on three criteria:

- How well it expresses the theme.
- Creativity, uniqueness and originality.
- Overall impression and design of the artwork.
- Ability to be used on resources and merchandise.

Prizes:

Three $200 vouchers and four $50 vouchers to optional locations are up for grabs.

Artist bios to go on Freedom socials and website (optional).

Each winner will be given items with artwork printed on it.
